DETAILED ACTION

This is the third office action for U.S. Application 10/824,414 for a Keyboard Arm filed by Timothy P. Scott on April 15, 2004. Claims 1-20 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-20 are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art does not disclose an articulating arm for keyboards for use with a base, wherein the arm has a bracket, pivot member and support, with the bracket being pivotally mounted to a first end of the pivot member at a first pivot point, the support being pivotally mounted to a second end of the pivot member at a second pivot point, whereby the pivot member has an arcuate surface extending therefrom near the first pivot point, the first pivot point has a first locked and unlocked position, and whereby the first locked and unlocked position is controlled by a brake that is adjustably mounted to move into and out of locking contact with the arcuate surface, the second pivot point having second locked and unlocked positions, with the bracket being connected to the base..

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
